Appendix.

Petition of Pierre Baudouin to Governor Andros. (ADDRESS AT BOWDOIN COLL. 1849, BY HON. ROBERT C. WINTHROP.)
(THE ORIGINAL IN FRENCH.)

To His Excellency the Governor-in-chief of New England humbly prays Pierre Baudouin saying: that having been obliged by the rigors which were exercised towards the protestants in France, to depart thence with my family, and having sought refuge in the realm of Ireland, at the city of Dublin, to which place it pleased the Receiver of His Majesty's Customs to admit him, your petitioner was employed in one of the bureaux; but afterwards, there being a change of officers, he was left without any employment. This was what caused the petitioner and his family, to the number of six persons, to withdraw into this territory, in the town of Casco and province of Maine; and seeing that there are many lands which are not occupied, and particularly those which are situated at the point of Barbary Creek may it please Your Excellency to decree that there may be assigned to your petitioner about one hundred acres, to the end that he may have the means of supporting his family. And he will continue to pray God for the health of Your Excellency

And whenever her coverture shall determine & cease, then the said third both of real & personal estate shall be at her own disposal; But in case of the Death of my s<sup>d</sup> Daughter, during such coverture, it is my Will that the said third (both real & personal) shall descend to her children, in equal shares, to which they shall be respectively entitled when they shall respectively arrive at full age; & in the meantime their share of the income & interest thereof, (or so much as may be needful) shall be paid by the said trustees for their maintenance & education respectively. But in case of the death of any of the said children before they arrive at full age, their shares shall pass to the surviving children in equal proportions; excepting where such deccas'd shall have children, in which case their shares shall pass to their children in equal parts, respectively, to have & to hold the same respectively to them their heirs & assigns forever.

And whereas I have thought proper to make some alterations in the bequest above mention'd, as it respects my said Daughter Elizth Temple, to whom I hereby bequeath the remaining third part of my real & personal estate above mentioned, as expressed in the seventh clause of my said Will, dated March 23rd 1789, will fully appear; subject to this Proviso, viz: Provided always, & it is my Will, that during her coverture, her said third part both real & personal, shall be deliver'd to, & be under the care & management of my worthy friend Oliver Wendall Esq<sup>re</sup> & at his decease, or on his refusal of the trust, shall be deliver'd to, & be under the care and management of such person or persons as shall from time to time be nominated by my said daughter Elizth Temple & be approved & appointed to that trust by the supreme court of Probate, for this Commonwealth; And in case my said Daughter for six months after the Death or refusal of the said Oliver Wendall Esq<sup>re</sup> shall neglect or refuse to nominate any Person as a trustee as aforesaid during her coverture, then the Justices of the supreme court of Probate are hereby authoriz'd & empower'd to appoint one or more trustees; whose business it shall be to improve the estate hereby bequeath'd to her to the best advantage of my said Daughter, & the Income, Profits & Interest thereof as the same becomes due to pay to her, or her Order; whose receipt or Order, notwithstanding her Coverture, shall be a sufficient to him or them, for such sums as he or they may from time to time pay to her; & for his or their care in this business, they shall be allowed out of such profits & Income, a reasonable compensation to be settled & approved by the supreme Court aforesaid, who are hereby vested with all needful powers for rendering this Proviso effectual. And with respect to all other parts of my said Will dated the 23rd of March 1789, it is my Will that the same should be carried into full execution in all parts thereof except that part which this Instrument is an exception, only reserving to my beloved Wife to make such alterations in the wearing of mourning as her prudence & sence of propriety may suggest.

P. S. The above Codicil was made at the express request of Mrs Elizth Temple who had no manner of objection to Nath Appleton Esq<sup>re</sup> as a trustee but was of an opinion that a single trustee would better conduct the bequest of her Father than two, & having a personal acquaintance with the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Oliver Wendall Esq<sup>re</sup> was desirous that he should be the sole Trustee.

In witness whereof, I hereunto set my hand & seal this 23rd day of October One thousand seven hundred & ninety and devise the same Mansion House and lands in Boston and Islands and estates (described in the devise to said James Temple) unto and to the use and behoof of the first son lawfully begotten of said James Bowdoin Winthrop and the heirs male of the body of such first son lawfully issuing and for default of such issue to the use of the second third and other sons of said James Bowdoin Winthrop and the heirs male of the body of each of them in succession & manner as before limited to the male issue of said James Temple, and for default of any such male issue of said James Temple and of said James Bowdoin Winthrop then I give and devise the said Estates in Boston and in the County of Dukes County and Woods hole, with their Stock furniture and appurtenances before described unto the aforesaid Bowdoin College in fee simple forever. — Sixthly — I give and devise to my said Nephew James Temple Bowdoin and to his heirs in fee simple my Estate in State Street and Kilby Street formerly called the Bunch of Grapes Tavern, also my Brick House and small Brick tenements in Back Street and Richmond Street all in said Boston, and all the foregoing gifts and devises which I have thus made to him are under the hope and expectation that he will return to and continue to be a Citizen of the United States. — Seventhly — I give and devise to my Nephew James Bowdoin Winthrop, he dropping the name of Winthrop, for and during his life all that tract of land situated in Bowdoinham in the County of Lincoln of which I am proprietor contained within the Grants Lots so called numbered nine and ten together with the Houses, buildings, Stock, emplements and appurtenances thereof excepting two thousand Acres of the part thereof that be best spared in the opinion of the Judge of Probate for that County which I authorize said James Bowdoin Winthrop (then Bowdoin) to sell by proper deeds of conveyance for the extending improvements on the residue and to enable him to build a House for himself and family — and the said tract of land excepting the part he shall so sell I give and devise to him, for and during the term of his natural life and from and immediately after the determination of that estate by forfeiture or otherwise, I give and devise the same to said Thomas Lindal Winthrop and Richard Sullivan Esquires and to their heirs in trust only to preserve and support the contingent remainders and uses herein after limited from being defeated barred or destroyed, and for that purpose from time to time and at all times to make entries and bring actions as occasion may require; nevertheless to permit and suffer the said James Bowdoin Winthrop to receive the rents issues and profits thereof for and during the term of his natural life; and from and immediately after the decease of said James Bowdoin Winthrop I give and devise said Estate in Bowdoinham except what he shall sell as aforesaid unto and to and for the use and behoof of the first son lawfully begotten or to be begotten of him said James Bowdoin Winthrop and the heirs male of the body of such first son lawfully issuing and for default of such issue to the use and behoof of the second third & all and every other son and sons of said James Bowdoin Winthrop and the heirs male of the body and bodies of such second, third and other son and sons lawfully begotten or to be begotten severally and successively as they shall be in seniority of age and priority of Birth, that is to say the oldest of such son and sons and the heirs male of his and their body and bodies being always to be preferred before the younger of such son and sons and the heirs male of his and their body and bodies lawfully to be begotten. — And for default of such issue of my said Nephew James Bowdoin Winthrop I do give and devise all the said Estate in the town of Bowdoinham, except said two thousand Acres unto said Bowdoin College in fee simple forever. — Eighthly — I give and devise to my beforementioned affectionate wife her heirs and assigns all the personal estate of all descriptions which I may own at the time of my decease which I have not given away in the former parts of this Will, in which bequest and gift unto her I include my Bonds, mortgages, notes, specialties and public securities of all descriptions, Bank Shares, Bridge and Turnpike

Shares and all the furniture in my Mansion House excepting in the Drawing Room, also my Carriages and Horses for her use and benefit, and whereas certain of the obligations and contracts included in this my bequest to her of personal estate are on condition that when paid, I should convey certain Estates in said obligations or contracts described, I do therefore hereby Authorize her to make execute and deliver such deeds and conveyances in law as I could make if living, without applying to any Court of law for license therefor. — And whereas I have made this provision that my said wife might not be troubled with the management of too much Real Estate, I do hereby express that all the bequests and devises made to her in this will are upon condition that she abide by said provisions and release her dower in my Real Estate and confirm if need be, the several conveyances of estate formerly belonging to her but which she and I conveyed to Phebe Oliver and which said Phebe Oliver conveyed unto me so that the same should make part of my estate hereby given and devised as my own.— But as to the Estate in Milk Street in the occupation of my friend Thomas Lindal Winthrop in Boston, I consider as still belonging to her, she never having joined in any alienation thereof, and in addition thereto I give and devise unto her and her heirs that piece of land which I purchased of Appleton Prentiss now inclosed with that Milk Street estate and a right of passageway eight feet and a half wide down the yard now occupied by Thomas Kilby Jones as by reference to said Prentiss's Deed will appear.— And Ninthly — I give and devise to my said two nephews James Bowdoin Winthrop and James Temple Bowdoin their Heirs Executors Administrators and assigns all the rest and residue of my estate, not disposed of in any former part of this Will. . . . — And Lastly — I do nominate constitute and appoint the before mentioned Thomas Lindal Winthrop and Richard Sullivan Esquires Executors of this my last Will and Testament.— And now upon examining the foregoing five pages, I find that James Bowdoin Winthrop is called of Harvard College in Cambridge which is a mistake, he being of Bowdoin College in Brunswick; I also find an omission of an intended devise of my estate in Dorchester in the County of Norfolk to my Nephew James Temple Bowdoin.—I now hereby give and devise to him all my Houses Buildings Lands and Estate in said Dorchester to hold to him said James Temple Bowdoin and his heirs and assigns forever. — And in witness of this my last Will & Testament upon this and five preceding pages I have hereunto set my hand and seal this fourth day of June Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and eleven

You shou'd have heard from me by the first opportunity after you sailed but I have been poorly in health ever since my nerves w<sup>ch</sup> are always bad have been more than commonly out of order but this being the first time of your going abroad & to be absent from your friends cou'd not therefore omit intimating to you some Caution w<sup>ch</sup> I hope you will observe, you can't but think your father mother & friends as well as myself are very anxious for your welfare & well being. In the first place I flatter my self you had very good & quick Passage as we had fine weather for along time after you sailed we shall impatiently await to hear of your safe arrival & health & that with the blessing of God you may obtain the Ends & Intentions of your going a confirmed state of health & in order to this I wou'd caution you to be moderate both in your drink & diet for as you have letters from Gentlemen here to their friends in London which will naturally lead you into Company you must be mindfull to take care that the Climate altho' good does not agree with strangers at their first coming. I hope your life & health will be preserved & that you will meet with success in all your undertakings. That you may obtain a blessing lett me recommend it to you never to neglect your duty to God but lett it be the first thing you do in a morning before you sett about any business invoke his blessing upon your Undertakings that day & never forget before you go to rest to return thanks for that day's benefit & to recommend yourself to his care & Protection that night in doing of w<sup>ch</sup> you will find great satisfaction & lett no business or time be an Excuse for the neglect of this duty. Another thing I would recommend that is that you wou'd never omit any opportunity of attending the publick worship of almighty God for that it publick worship that day the most honor to God & makes your Prayers the most acceptable sacrifice to him, & as you are now arrived to such a state of Life lett your deportment be such as may be pleasing to all men so that nothing may be diminished from that good character you have hitherto sustained & that you may avoid the Prejudices that are often the ruin of young men. I wou'd also earnestly desire you to avoid ill & idle Company & never be afraid to say no to any Proposal that may be made to you that seems contrary to your duty to God or man there are more young men ruined for the want of Resolution to say no than any one thing else & that you may not offend speak evil of no man nor any sett of men nor of any Country, especially the place of your Nativity w<sup>ch</sup> has been so notoriously practised by many of the youth of this Country when abroad they have joined in ridiculing the place of their birth to their great shame & dishonour. As you are soon to return I would advise you to make the best use of your time whilst you stay for the benefit of your health & the advantage & improvement of your mind & after you have viewd & seen all that is curious in & about London it will then be worth your while to make yourself acquainted with all the Branches of the manufactures carried on there & in other parts of the Kingdom w<sup>ch</sup> you may obtain knowledge of, if you not time to see all the places some knowledge & experience in these will naturally lead you enquire where all these goods are consumed & the different countries they are carried to & there must be great variety to suit the many different markets the British nation trade to so there must be great variety in the returns brought from these countries according to their climate & produce to make an exchange or pay for what they have from Britain a Knowledge of this sort would be very entertaining useful & serviceable to young men not only because it would give them a taste of geography but that of manufactures & commerce w<sup>ch</sup> has been so advantageous to all Europe that it has raised them from that stupid ignorant slavish condition they were in three or four hundred years ago without Knowledge or arts to that opulent flourishing state they are now in & is one of the best studies a young man can qualify himself with both for amusement & conversation. As I hinted before your going that you must keep a Journal or minutes of all Transactions especially those that are rare or curious w<sup>ch</sup> the more you practice the more you will incline to enlarge & continue is & I doubt not in the course of your observations you will have occasion to make your Remarks on Luxury Extravagance Prodigality & all profuse irregular ways of living & this will also serve for a caution to you to shun all such Company as live on the practice of these Vices. I write this for your own benefit & advantage not to communicate it for according to the old Proverb a close tongue makes a wise head & hope you will be cautious in this & all other things & follow the advice herein given & that you will not forget what I do so often impressed on you to be sure to take care of your self in doing w<sup>ch</sup> will remind you of the above Caution. I shall expect to hear from you & how you do by the first ship after your arrival & also that you let me know what part of the Country my son William is in. As this comes under cover to Mr. Stewart I shall not enlarge on the Condition of our family because he & you both will have it from so many hands but only that we are all in a perfect state of health

grand father

JOHN ERVING

P. S. this letter was wrote about a month ago but the badness of the weather w<sup>ch</sup> made my health bad prevented my sending it by the several opportunities. Dont write my son William till I have answered to the letters already wrote him.

Letter from George Erving to his Niece Elizabeth, Lady Temple, then residing in Boston.

LONDON the 27th. Sep<sup>r</sup> 1800.

MY DEAR NIECE

I had the pleasure of receiving y<sup>r</sup> letters of the 3<sup>d</sup> July & 4th of Aug<sup>t</sup> with their several inclosures; which I have distributed according to direction. The letters for Mrs Palmer<sup>1</sup> I forwarded to her husband at Rahin, near Clonard Kildare County, Ireland. I had previously rec<sup>d</sup> a letter from him; and guess'd that Rahin was the place he dated from. I say guess'd, for his handwriting was so new to me, and of so particular a sort that, after trying it in every view I was oblig'd at last to submit to chance. In my letter to him I desired a speedy reply, that I might be sure of the direction; and not having heard from him, after waiting more than the full time, I suspected I was in an error, and all the letters I had forwarded had gone the Lord knows where. In this dilemma I wrote to Sir Grenville<sup>2</sup> at Cheltenham to be set right if wrong. By his answer I was glad to find that I had guess'd right. So that I attribute Capt. Palmer's silence to buissness or some other indispensable engagement.

Your son James<sup>3</sup> was in town ab<sup>t</sup> 10 days ago. He came with a view of negotiating an exchange from the Reg<sup>t</sup> he is in the 60th to the 52<sup>d</sup>. I think it is; and in all probability will succeed, paying a difference of £400. The next step will be the most difficult one he will meet with; especially if there come a peace, which all appearances at present promise. There are so many young gentlemen of rank and of great fortunes now in the army, that any price will be given for promotions, especially to field rank, and there will be no chance of getting promotion on moderate terms, but in those Reg<sup>ts</sup> that are situated in inhospitable climates. It is said that the Reg<sup>t</sup> which James is ab<sup>t</sup> exchanging into will be sent to the East Indies; and if it is, he has prepar'd his mind to go with it. In that Country he may get his promotions on much more moderate terms than in this. James told me he left his brother at Cheltenham much benefitted by the waters. While he has been at Cheltenham Lady Temple<sup>1</sup> has been on a visit to her sister Hutchinson at Birmingham. They are all now at Cheltenham, and are expected in town in abt a fortnight.

The parcel which you directed to be left with Lane & Co. I have rec'd. As the door of the inclosure was open a jar, I took the liberty of opening it and taking a peep at the principal figure it contained; on beholding which, one might almost say in the Hyperbolical language of our great poet

“It tutors nature, artificial strife
Lives in these touches, livelier than life.”

Seriously. If this be a true representation of the original, and the artist has not been somewhat of a courtier with his pencil, as many of these rogues are, and taken you back at least 20 years, it is the representation of the youngest “old woman” that I ever saw. By this one might suppose you to be a particular favorite of Time. With me he has not been quite so partial. He has been scoring & marking my face in all directions, and in as many unmeaning lines, as children sometimes wantonly scrawl on the covers of their books. On critically examining this piece, and comparing it with the image of you which is strongly painted in my mind. I cannot say I see any great resemblance. But the best miniature that can be taken of you, and done by the best artist, is y<sup>r</sup> daughter Mrs. Palmer. The first moment I saw her, I seem'd instantly to have drop'd four & thirty years, and saw before me Miss Bowdoin in all her youthful bloom and innocence. This bro't to my mind many pleasing painful reflections—why then send your picture to one who is herself the living exact copy of the original, and may see her Mama in her youthful bloom whenever she chances to look into the mirror. Nor does she seem less to resemble her Mama in her inward than in her outward person. She appears to have the same happy disposition of mind, the same degree of good sense and cheerfulness of temper with the original. Capt. Palmer I believe to be a very good temper'd man, and a very kind & attentive husband. James tells me that he purposes to come soon to England; in the view of obtaining the place of Consul in one of the American districts. If he sh<sup>d</sup> succeed, as it is tho't he will they may return to you in the Spring; and thence deprive us of the pleasure we promised ourselves of seeing you here, probably you will hear more particulars of this matter from other quarters. Capt. Palmer seems to have a considerable partiality for America; which is not quite the case with Sir Grenville. Remember me very kindly to your mother and believe me to be sincerely

Your very aff<sup>te</sup> uncle,
